DODGERS MAKE CLEAN SWEEP OF SERIES BY WINNING 11-6 GAME FROM COLONELS

Lyman Lamb Sends Grapefruit Out of Park With Bases Loaded in Sixth Inning.

(By CHAS. A. REINHART)

The Colonels dropped the third and final game of the series with Brooklyn yesterday afternoon by the score of 11 to 6. For a time it looked like McCarthy's men might come through with their initial victory of the season but ineffective hurling on the part of Ernie Koob in the final frame caused the downfall of the American association champions.

Lyman Lamb, the peppery little handy man from the St. Louis Browns, headed the Colonels for a victory in the sixth inning when with the sacks loaded he leaned against one of Clarence Mitchell's fast ones and sent it far over left field fence. This drive put the Colonels three runs to the good but they were unable to maintain this lead very long for the Dodgers came right back in the next frame and knocked the count six all. Four hits including a double and a triple off Koob in the closing round coupled with an error by Klrke, netted the Dodgers five more counters.

Nick Cullop started for the Colonels and he experienced little trouble in blanking the Dodgers for four frames, allowing but three hits two of them coming in the second inning. Stanley King worked the next three innings, issuing seven hits and six markers. Ragged support on the part of his teammates kept King in the hole. Koob finished the game.

Sherrod Smith, a member of the Louisville club back in 1913 under the management of Jack Hayden, tried out his submarine ball on the Colonels for the first three innings and only one bludge was registered off the Dodger southpaw.

Clarence Mitchell, pitcher and general utility man of the Dodgers proved easy pickings for the Colonels during his stay on the mound and they nicked him for five hits and six runs in the sixth. Shriver, a youngster from the Michigan-Ontario league, who by the way looks like a real promising right-hander, baffled the Colonels the remainder of the way.

Regular Bat Fest.

Every member of the Brooklyn team with the exception of Olson, Miller and Smith cracked out one or more bingles off the Louisville twirlers. In all they were credited with fourteen safeties. Schmandt and Crane getting three each. Six hits were garnered by the Colonels.

Bruno Betzel's work around second base was spectacular throughout the afternoon. He deprived Zack Wheat of a sure hit in the seventh when he knocked down the latter's scorching liner and threw to Klrke in time to retire the runner.

The Dodgers pushed over three markers in the sixth when after Klrke retired Johnston on his ground-er to first Wheat got a slashing single to center. King walked. Myers and while Schmandt looked at the third one the Dodgers pulled a double steal. Crane hit one into right for one base and Wheat trotted home. Hungling scored Myers and Crane with a long single to left. Betzel tossed out Mitchell for the third out.

Massey Starts Fireworks.

The Colonels got to Mitchell in their part of the sixth and when the smoke had cleared away they were three runs to the good. Massey started the fireworks with a drive to right for one base. Klrke got a hit to third. Ellis filed to T. Griffith. Bellenger singled to left, counting Massey. Schepner hit a double to left, scoring Klrke. Meyer was intentionally passed, filling the bags. King looked at the third strike. With the count two and two on Lamb, the latter cleared the paths with a home run over the left field fence. Betzel and Massey walked and the latter was forced by Klrke.

With one out Tommy Griffith got a hit to Bellenger back of second base in the seventh. Johnston walked and Wheat was thrown out by Betzel. Meyer doubled, scoring Griffith. Schmandt's single counted Johnston. Crane was tossed out by Bellenger. T. Griffith started the ninth with a double and all hands were safe when Koob failed to get the former as third on Johnston's sacrifice. Wheat grounded to Klrke. Meyer hit to Koob and Griffith was run down between third and home. Klrke coming over and getting the "putout." Schmandt singled, scoring Johnston. Crane beat one out to Bellenger. Meyer scoring. Miller was safe on Klrke's tumble, filling the sacks. Shriver tallied all three runners with a drive against the fence in right-center. Schepner tossed out Olson for the final out of the inning.

Tinoup Coming.

Business Manager Neal of the Louisville baseball club announced tonight that a compromise had been reached with Ben Tinoup, the Indian pitcher-outfielder. He has been wired to join the club here as soon as possible. Tinoup is now at his home in Tulsa, Okla. The arrival of Tinoup will bring the Louisville roster up to twenty-eight members.

YANNIGAN TEAMS BATTLE TO A TIE

Brooklyn and Louisville Rookies Play 8-8 Game in Training Contest.

The Yannigan teams of the Colonels and Dodgers staged a seven-inning 8 to 8 tie contest yesterday morning. Art Decatur, a former Colonels, who was put on the shelf two seasons ago with a fractured collarbone, worked three innings for the Dodger Yans and he was succeeded by Brown and Hockett. Holley and Dean twirled for the Colonels youngsters. Two home runs and three singles and a base on balls gave Holley a bad start in the opening round but after that he settled down and pitched good ball. Earl Combs and Neil Deighan each collected three safeties and Jones got two singles off the opposing hurlers.

American Women Are Careless

Women are too apt to overestimate their strength and overtax it. When feeling well they take unnecessary chances, which in the long run cause much pain and trouble. Wet feet, exposure to cold, lifting heavy burdens and overwork will often develop troubles which cause no end of suffering. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing remedy in such cases. Thousands of American women will testify to this fact who have regained health and strength by its use. If you are suffering it will pay you to give it a trial.—Advertisement.

Should a Pretty Woman Be Husband's Trademark?

Gloria Swanson, who plays the role of a bartered wife in her latest Paramount picture, "Her Husband's Trademark," believes a wife should look pretty and wear nice clothes for her husband but not his friends, and should not be used socially to gain standing for her husband with his business associates.
